

» Coperion know-how at your disposal: Seminars on Process Technology for Polyolefin Compounding

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- To get an insight into and understand the design of the installed system and installed machines, its technical specifications, equipment, mode of functioning and also the technological processes of the individual components
- Introduce and understand the importance of all possible safety regulations
- Learn how to operate the installation and range of components, how to use the various controls and setting devices for the purpose of product change-over and /or product optimization
- Maintenance requirements and how to deal with them
- Location of trouble sources and troubleshooting procedures

LANGUAGE

All courses will be held in English if there is no other predefinition.

TRAINER COORDINATION

Simon Pothier
Coperion GmbH, Weingarten, Germany

DATES AND LOCATION

SESSION

upon request

Coperion GmbH, Weingarten, Germany

INDIVIDUAL SEMINARS

In addition to the regularly scheduled classes in Stuttgart, Germany, courses can be held at your company's site.

Training contents can be modified according to your objectives. Having discussed your needs we work out a customized training schedule and pricing for you.

CONTACT INFORMATION

For more information about Coperion's seminars on please contact:

Cyril Michel

Phone: +49 (0) 751 / 408-253

cyril.michel@coperion.com

Coperion GmbH, Niederbieger Strasse 9, 88250 Weingarten, Germany, info@coperion.com, www.coperion.com